

Conditions of participation and declaration of renunciation

Workshop/Date:

Location: Vienna Airport, Technical Base

Trainer:

The participation in this workshop/training as well as the use of all training facilities takes place at your own risk.

The instructions given by the trainer during the entire workshop must be strictly followed. The participant can be held responsible for the liability of any damages caused by the disregard of instructions given by the trainer(s).

All safety instructions for the practical training(s) will be given by the trainers in German and/or English language.

By signing this liability waiver you confirm that you are able to speak/understand English and/or German.

The participant waives the compensation for damages and for personal suffering, which may be associated with the workshop.

The participant will inform the trainer(s) immediately in case:

- He/she can't understand the instructions given by the trainer(s).
- He/she feels overexerted by exercises.
In this case the participant should refrain from these exercises.
- Of pregnancy. Please note, that the use of the full motion simulator is prohibited in case of pregnancy.

Please note, that the practical training shall only be performed in suitable clothes (comfortable trousers/training overalls, extra pair of socks, flat shoes).

We want to bring to your attention that the practical training will be performed in the Training Facilities of Austrian. Should you have taken pictures and/or video material of the facilities, it is required to have permission of the Austrian public relations department before publishing any material that contains the Austrian Logo. ASN will not be liable for the publishing of any non ASN related logos.

The participant confirms, that he/she understands and agrees with the conditions of participation and declaration of renunciation stated above.
